

Restaurant Totto, Amagerbrogade

The local options – breakfast bread, coffee, ice cream, wine, pizza, take away restaurants

All of Copenhagen and all it has to offer is just a handful of metro stops away. But Amager certainly also offers good coffee, crunchy croissants, silky ice cream, delicious take-away food and chilled white wine.

Supermarkets

Not far from the apartment, down by the road along the beach, you will find two supermarkets which are almost neighbours: Rema 1000 and Lidl. Further away, at Strandlodsvej 43, is a larger supermarket, Kvickly.

Breakfast bread:

Both Lidl and Rema 1000 offer breakfast bread. But it is recommended to take a trip to the Lagkagehuset, which is close by, and where it is also possible to get a coffee.

If you want to support a smaller baker, Svaneke Brød is the only one. The selection is quite suitable for both bread, buns, rye bread and pastry - here their cardamom swirls and pain au chocolat are particularly recommended. And it is only a stone's throw away from Lagkagehuset.

Address: Amager Strandvej 140B

Coffee

The local coffee bar is next to Rema 1000 and thus very close to the apartment. Yellow Bird Coffee can be recommended for a good atmosphere, and if the weather is good, the sun is part of the terrace all morning.

CUB

Another good coffee bar is CUB Coffee, which offers both delicious coffee, fine croissants from Il Buco (at Islands Brygge - also highly recommended for lunch and dinner) and last but not least good avocado snacks.

Address: Strandlodsvej 48, 2300 Copenhagen (just opposite Kvikly)

Bingo

In the other direction, on the other side of the Metro line, a short walk further away (feel free to stroll through the cozy Italian quarter with lovely gardens and villas) is Bingo.

Here you will immediately feel welcome - young and old - and this applies both at the outdoor tables and in the cozy old bookshop. At Bingo you can enjoy breakfast and lunch and sometimes also drinks, snacks and dinner. Also check their Instagram account for opening hours if you plan to go in the late afternoon or evening.

Address: Amagerbrogade 156, 2300 Copenhagen S.

Alice Ice Cream & Coffee

Located at the beginning of Amagerbrogade has become known throughout Copenhagen for their delicious ice cream and their even more delicious (and homemade) ice cream waffles. There is also a cozy café with delicious coffee and good rolls and, last but not least, croissants (the best in town – and I have tried quite a few). When the sun is out, there can be lines and sometimes the ice cream and waffles might be sold out. Ditto for croissants on a rainy day, but worth a visit.

Address: Markmandsgade 1 (corner of Amagerbrogade), 2300 Copenhagen S.

Wine or beverages

Vinøs

Near the apartment is Vinøs, Amager's finest wine bar and wine club. There's always a glass of the month's white or red wine at an affordable price, and it's a good opportunity to taste wines from places other than the usual supermarket offer.

Address: Lergravsvej 30, 2300 Copenhagen S.

A good bar

If you're looking for a place with a bit more of a bar atmosphere, Whammy Bar is a good deal. Here you will find a good selection of beer and drinks. There are seats both inside and outside.

Address: Østrigsgade 13, 2300 Copenhagen S.

Takeaway / restaurants

Pizza

The nearest pizza place is Cibo, which is on the way down to the beach. The place is popular, and many people buy pizzas and eat on the beach or in the grass by the restaurant.

Can be recommended - but the quality can fluctuate a bit.

Otto

A new place not far from the apartment. The pizzas are prepared in a refrigerator and must be baked at home. They can be recommended - they are really good, and then they are piping hot after a trip in the oven.

Strandlodsvej 15 A, 2300 Copenhagen

There are always many opinions about pizzas, but Bella Mella makes good pizzas with a crispy base (take away only).

Address: Backersvej 38

If you dare to venture a little further afield, Piccolo Pizzeria can also be recommended.

Address: Englandsvej 12B

Gungs Thai was highlighted by my Thai friend as one of the best Thai places - and there really is a lot to choose from. It doesn't look like much, but their homemade spring rolls and, for example, a green curry leave me very full and satisfied.

Address: Øresundsvej 24, 2300 Copenhagen S.

Should it be something more special, but still in an Asian direction, Kiin Kiin to go is a safe bet. There are woks, salads, snacks and much more.

Address: Serbiensgade 5, 2300 Copenhagen

Jagger

The burger above all can be found at Jagger. Everything plays from burger buns, meat and dressing to fries and dip. If you want to go all in, the Oreo milkshake is also highly recommended. Their store on Amagerbrogade has room for a few handfuls of guests, but otherwise it is also easy to take home.

Address: Amagerbrogade 128

If you like Mexican and delicious, tasty tacos, Pastor Tacos is a must. A small cozy restaurant where you can enjoy the food or take the food home.

Address: Amagerbrogade 134

Sticks'n'Sushi (snack bar and restaurant): Amager Strandvej 110

Eating out:

A good dinner? Here are two good suggestions:

Totto - see picture at the top of this guide. Remember to book a table.
